

AICHI

Corporate Hub

About Us

AICHI is a “Corporate Hub” born from the innovative “One Stop Office” business concept. It was specifically designed to meet all your corporate needs, offering integral solutions such as specialized professional advice and consultancy, the supply of physical or virtual work spaces, management support and other added value services. AICHI is where you can go to find all your corporate solutions.

We firmly believe that in order to be successful in today’s world, you can no longer rely on quality and good service alone; you also have to offer several alternatives as well as a solid infrastructure that responds quickly and effectively to the demands of the current production environment.

Under these guidelines, we have designed efficient, dynamic and flexible schemes to take care of the bulk operational burden of your company, amongst other things, allowing you to dedicate all your attention to developing the "core business" of your organization thus leaving you time and energy to generate significant economical benefits, synergies and placement in your industry, whichever it may be.

We are part of a large worldwide network of companies and organizations with which multiple business opportunities and solid business relationships can be formed. The companies linked to AICHI - "Corporate Hub" benefit from a preferential access to this network.

Let us be your strategic partner to start working in a new way, you will witness how life and work become easier and more pleasurable.
